Re: Church of Scientology v.
Armstrong, Bent Corydon,
Appellee. Civ. No. B
038975

Dear Sir:

On March 1, 1990, Gerald Armstrong filed a document in this Appeal captioned Petition for Permission to File Response and for Time to File. Shortly thereafter Bent Corydon filed a response requesting that the petition be granted. On March 1, 1990 Mr. Armstrong also filed a petition for leave to file a brief in another appeal pending in this court arising from the same lawsuit. That appeal is Civ. App. No. B 025920. Mr. Armstrong's petition was granted as to that matter but the undersigned counsel for Mr. Corydon has received no notice of whether Mr. Armstrong's petition has been acted upon in Appeal B 038975. Consequently, I am uncertain whether briefing has been completed and would like to clarify this issue.

If a ruling on that petition has been sent to counsel but somehow not received by me, please send me a copy in the envelope I have provided for that purpose. Please also confirm that you have my address correctly listed, which is a change of address since the commencement of this appeal.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Toby L. Plevin
